MISS JACKSON COMPLIMENTED
WITH MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER
 Miss Margaret B. Jackson, whose marriage to Mr. Robert W. Bartlett will be an event of much interest on Tuesday, was the center of a most delightful affair on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. J. E. Willford complimented her with a miscellaneous shower.

Mrs. Willford's home on Oliver avenue was prettily decorated for the occasion, having been artistically employed to carry out a white and green color motif.

The diversion of the afternoon was a progressive game of hearts, at the conclusion of which pretty prizes were awarded to the winners.

The gifts for the bride-elect were presented in a novel manner by Miss Jackson's little niece, Peggy Martin, who was groomed as a bride, the bride being concealed in the lovely bridal bouquet, which she presented to the bride.

At the close of the afternoon a delicious collation was served, and the guests, who were all of the same opinion, about 40 of whom had the pleasure of being present.

Mrs. Willford was charmingly groomed for the afternoon in lavender and white, while Miss Jackson wore a lovely white georgette crepe with a pink hat.

Mrs. William Woodard, Mrs. Ashley Martin will entertain in Miss Jackson's honor on Thursday afternoon and on Saturday she will be complimented by Miss Ida Over.

MISS LIEBKEMAN HONORED AT AFTERNOON AT CARDS

Mrs. Eugene Moore and her sister, Mrs. Martha Koehler, were the charming hostesses at a most enjoyable affair on Wednesday afternoon, when they entertained a card party in compliment to a pretty bride-elect, Miss Leone Liebkeman. The home of their mother, Mrs. Paul Koehler, was the scene of the gathering, which was artistically decorated with American Beauty and Killarney roses.

The prizes awarded at the conclusion of the game of 500, which proved an interesting diversion, were a cut glass perfume bottle, a camellia, a box of stationery and a character doll, which was the lucky prize.

The winner of the consolation prize was designated by the initials of the bride-elect, as a tiny silver slipper among those drawn by the guests as souvenirs of the afternoon.

Following the game a basket of gifts, which adorned an improvised altar, was presented to the bride-elect, after which a delicious ice course was served to the guests, about 25 of whom had the pleasure of being present.

To receive their guests the hostesses were attractively groomed, Mrs. Moore wearing orchid beaded georgette crepe, and Mrs. Koehler peach georgette crepe, while their mother, Mrs. Paul Koehler, who assisted them in entertaining, was groomed in pink georgette crepe.

Miss Liebkeman was charmingly groomed in blue tulle draped in blue georgette crepe heavily embroidered with silver, with which she wore a picture hat of silver lace and tulle and a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses and valley lilies.

CZECHS OPPOSED TO ACTION AGAINST RUSS

PRAGUE, July 28.—Considerable discussion is going on in the Czech newspapers here over the possibility that the allies will demand military help from Czechoslovakia in connection with the Russo-Polish problems, or permission for the passage of arms, munitions or troops through this country.

The sentiment reflected is one of insurmountable aversion to any form of help in military action against Russia. The labor element, according to the indications, is determined to prevent the passage of munitions through Czechoslovakia for the Polish front.

Meet Baby Cleanwell's Big Sister!

She was the favorite yesterday, the first day of Rhodes' Big Introductory Sale, outselling Baby Cleanwell three to one. Everybody agreed Baby Cleanwell is a wiz, but all admired the sturdy appearance of Big Sister.

She Deserves It

Study the picture, note the wide tub racks, a feature that you are sure to appreciate. Rinsing tub, bluing tub, there is a place for all of them right where you need them, saving a lot of the preparation to wash, and a lot of useless work while washing.

You'll like the swinging wringer; it swings to any position, and it's extra strong—you can wring a heavy blanket as easily as you can a handkerchief.

She'll Work For You

A washing machine is a service investment in any home. A careful analysis of the expense of your laundry, and the cost of the Cleanwell will clearly reveal the fact that the Cleanwell earns her keep the minute she goes to work for you. If you are inclined to doubt this just compute your laundry expense and then remember that the cost of power to run the Cleanwell in a family of eight is fifteen cents a week. We will quote you any other facts you are interested in.
